

Course
&
Test Series

CBSE

ICSE

NTSE

Banking & Insurance

Central Govt.
Service

State Govt.
Services

LAW
Entrance

MBA
Entrance

Railways & Metro
Services

...many more

abhyasonline.in

Self-Made Assignment - HTML Basics

Introduction to HTML

True/False Questions

1. HTML documents are saved with a .htm or .html file extension.
2. In HTML, the <body> tag is used to define the head section of the document.
3. HTML documents are saved with a .htm or .html file extension.
4. The <title> element in HTML is used to specify the title of the webpage, which appears in the browser's title bar.
5. HTML tags are case-sensitive.
6. An HTML document must contain a <head> and a <body> section.
7. The <h1> tag is used to create the smallest heading in HTML.
8. The <!DOCTYPE html> declaration is case-sensitive and should be written in uppercase letters.
9. The <html> tag can be omitted if the document is simple.
10. The basic structure of an HTML document includes the <head> and <body> sections enclosed within the <html> tags.

