

Q. Ans 1. Digital camera - A digital camera is a portable camera that runs on batteries and usually has a slot from a memory card to picture and video. Web camera - A webcam is a small camera that connects to a computer. Even is built into a laptop and is generally used for videos chat online.

Ans 2. In computing, an Input device is piece of equipment used to provide data and control signals to an Information processing system such as a computer or Information appliance. Examples of Input devices include keyboard, mouse, scanners, cameras, joysticks and microphones.

Q. 3. A Plotter is a printer that interprets commands from a computer to make line drawing on paper with one or more automated pens.

Inkjet Plotter

Flat bed Plotter

Thermal Plotter

Electrostatic Plotter