

3 Data - Any raw information which can be given by user is called data.

4. programme - In computer it is specific set of order operation for a computer to perform

Ans: 1 In term of computer:-

1. Data → Raw information which the user can be given to computer for some result or output.

2. Information → Any data or important document which is used by user is called information.

3. Instructions - Instructions are the program given by user to computer for some specific result.

4. Programme - In computer it is specific set of order operation for a computer to perform.

Ans - 5

1. Hardware:- Any physical component which we can ~~see~~ touch or feel in computer is called hardware.
ex:- Monitor, desktop, CPU etc.

2. Software:- Which we cannot touch is called software. for ex:- apps, games, sites etc.

Pawani
Answers

Ans 1 AI, human

Ans 2 Application of computer means where the computer is applied or used.

→ Banking → Computer are highly used in banks to perform various task like bring or submitting money, vouchers, slips or many other purposes.

→ Schools → Computer are used in school for teaching purpose like making notes, establish papers on school site.

→ offices → Computer are used in office in different ways like presentation, documents editing, mails etc.

Ans 3 Embedded system is combination of software and hardware. It is highly reliable and less expensive. Laptops and general purpose CPU are not considered to be embedded system. Because embedded system is Hi-Tech Technology.